

Canes and Crutches Medicare/Medicaid and Insurance Guideline Information

MEDICARE:

Medicare purchases either a standard cane or a quad cane. If a replacement is needed

Medicare will allow one every five years.

Medicare will allow for a standard cane E0100 $22.12

Medicare will allow for a quad cane E0105 $49.96

Medicare will purchase either a pair of forearm crutches or underarm crutches. If a replacement is needed Medicare will allow one pair every five years.

Medicare will allow for forearm crutches E0110 $78.57/pr

Medicare will allow for aluminum underarm crutchesE0114 $42.12/pr

MEDICAID:

Medicaid purchases either a standard cane or quad cane. If a replacement is needed Medicaid will allow one every 12 months.

Medicaid will allow for a standard caneE0100 $17.91

Medicaid will allow for a quad cane E0105 $47.58

Medicaid will purchase either a pair of forearm crutches or underarm crutches. If a replacement is needed Medicaid will allow one every 12 months.

Medicaid will allow for forearm crutches E0110 $74.83pr

Medicare will allow for underarm crutchesE0114 $45.27/pr

PRIVATE INSURANCE:

We do provide insurance verification before setup. Insurance verification is never a guarantee of payment to FHME. Every individual has different coverage depending on his/her insurance plan. We do our best to inform you about what we are able to find out. However, it is your responsibility to know and understand your policy provisions, as you are financially responsible to FHME.

In order to bill your insurance we must first have a prescription and your insurance information.